Parental Income certificate

Essential document for all merit-cum-means scholarship applications

Dear students,

This to inform you that IIT-K offers a number of scholarships to its students. Many of these scholarships are awarded based on merit-cum-means basis. According to current Govt. of India (GOI) rules, students whose combined parental income is below Rs. 4.5 lacs per annum are eligible to be considered for these scholarships. It should be noted that the parental income limit is subject to change from time to time as per GOI order.

Please note the following, very carefully, regarding the application process:

1. In order to apply for these awards you must bring the attached form (filled and duly signed by you and your parents) at the time of registration. This form must be submitted in person at the time of registration.
2. The processing of your application will begin on the basis of submission of the attached form (filled and duly signed by you and your parents).
3. However, you must submit one of the following supporting document as evidence for the stated income:
  - A. Salaried person (both government and private): A copy of Form 16 or Income Tax Return Form (ITR) for the financial year 2012-13 and assessment year of 2013-14.
  - B. Businessman: A copy of Income Tax Return Form for the financial year 2012-13 and assessment year of 2013-14.
  - C. Agriculturist and others: Print/type the attached application form on a Rs. 10 stamp paper and have it signed by your parents, countersigned by a Notary public or government official of the rank of Tehsildar and above for the financial year 2012-13.
4. Your application will be considered complete only upon receipt of one of the documents mentioned in 3. In case supporting documents mentioned in 3 are not submitted at the time of registration, the last date for such document submission is August 25, 2013.
5. Income stated in the application form must be the same as in the supporting document. Any discrepancy can attract disciplinary action including but not limited to revocation of scholarship.
6. Failure to submit supporting document by August 25, 2013 will automatically make you ineligible to receive merit-cum-means based scholarships.
