Parental Income certificate

Essential document for all merit-cum-means scholarship applications

[Dear Prospective student of IIT-Kanpur (IIT-K),

This to inform you that IIT-K offers a number of scholarships to its students. Many of these scholarships are awarded based on merit-cum-means basis. According to current Govt. of India (GOI) rules, students whose combined parental income is below Rs. 4.5 lacs per anum are eligible to be considered for these scholarships. It should be noted that the parental income limit is subject to change from time to time as per GOI order.

Please note the following, very carefully, regarding the application process:

1. In order to apply for these awards you must submit the attached form on or before July 29, 2011 (the late registration date of the odd semester for the academic year 2011-'12).
2. The processing of your application will begin on the basis of submission of the attached form alone (filled and duly signed) on a plain paper.
3. However, you must submit supporting document as evidence for the stated income.
4. The acceptable supporting documents are:
 - A. Salaried person (both government and private): A copy of Form 16 or Income Tax Return Form for the financial year 2010-11 and assessment year of 2011-12.
 - B. Businessman: A copy of Income Tax Return Form for the financial year 2010-11 and assessment year of 2011-12.
 - C. Agriculturist and others: Original Income Affidavit for the financial year 2010-11 from court on Rs. 10 stamp paper. (Print/type the attached application form on a stamp paper and have it signed by your parents, countersigned by a Notary public or government official of the rank of Tehsildar and above)
5. Your application will be considered complete only upon receiving one of the documents mentioned in 4A or 4B or 4C.
6. You must submit the supporting document (as mentioned in 4 above) on or before September 30, 2011 (the last date for document submission for the academic year 2011-'12)
7. Income stated in the application form must be the same as in the supporting document. Any discrepancy can attract disciplinary action including but not limited to revocation of scholarship.
8. Failure to submit supporting document by September 30, 2011 will automatically make you ineligible to receive merit-cum-means scholarships and scholarship payment will stop effective October 1, 2011 and recovery process of already paid scholarship will start.]
