

Supporting action (contd)

They have^{SP} brought some new things which we did not^{SP} have^{ORD}.

Have^{SP} you not paid him? Now he has to^{SP} deliver the goods.

The Indus valley people used to^{SP} use^{ORD} bronze to make weapons.

He can^{SP} open his shop here. You cannot^{SP} stop him.

I could not^{SP} complete your work. Could^{SP} you wait for a while?

May^{SP} I go now? No, I might^{SP} need^{ORD} you here.

We need to^{ORD/SP} check the result. The process need not^{SP} be^{ORD} specified.

They let^{SP} him go unchecked. Let^{SP} us accept this fact.

Before being^{SP} elected to lead, he must^{SP} prove his ability.

I am^{SP} planning to try this test. I must^{SP} take the challenge.

He dares^{ORD/SP} us to fight. He dare not^{SP} oppose his leader.
