Department of Mechanical Engineering,
Indian Institute of Technology Kanpur

1. Important announcement

   We are expecting the selected candidates to join our PG program in July 2016. Students, graduating after July, 2016, will not be considered in the current admission. Such students are requested to apply in the next semester (Oct-Nov, 2016). Regular MTech/MS applicants will not undergo any written-test/interview. Written test/interview will be conducted only for all PhD and sponsored MTech/MS applicants.

2. Announcements for PhD, sponsored-M.Tech., and sponsored-M.S. applicants

3. Important Dates
   a) Written Examination: May 9, 2016, 0900-1100, Lecture Hall Complex
   b) Oral Examination: May 10, 2016, 0800 onwards, Lecture Hall Complex

4. Written Examination

   Written examination syllabus largely follows the GATE (ME) 2016 syllabus. Please visit the link below for detailed syllabus:

   We have, however, excluded the following subsections from the GATE (ME) 2016 syllabus: Complex Variables, Probability and Statistics, Theory of Machines, Metrology and Inspection, Computer Integrated Manufacturing, Production Planning and Control, Inventory Control, Operations Research

   Mathematics is compulsory for all the candidates. In addition to the Mathematics, the candidates will answer questions from any one of the following three streams: Solid Mechanics and Design (SMD), Fluid and Thermal Science (FTS), Manufacturing Science (MFS). A candidate may select any (one) stream from the above three. Candidates, however, will not be allowed to select more than one streams.

5. Oral Examination

   Applicants, qualifying the written examination, will be called for the oral examination. The names of shortlisted candidates will be published on May 9, 2016, 6 pm at the Lecture Hall Complex, IIT Kanpur

6. Accommodation

   Unfurnished (paid) accommodations will be provided in students' hostel. Please let us know (dpgcme@iitk.ac.in) if you need such accommodation. Applicants are requested to make their own travel arrangements.