CS 300: Technical Communications

1. Description: Improving skills for
   - technical writing
   - editing your own work
   - critiquing others' work, mentoring
   - preparing and making presentations.

     Peer interactions are one of the well-tested mechanisms for learning. Throughout the course, we will work in groups, each group discussing the members' group "mercilessly" to make it more meaningful and interesting for its intended audience. For the presentations, you will each work with an editor from the group, and improve your organization / presentation skills.
2. Prerequisites: None
3. Course Contents: We will be covering technical communications through various technical and non-technical assignments. They will either require writing a report or presenting a topic.
4. Lecture & Venue: Tue 10-11:50 AM, RM301
5. Office Hours: by appointment (maximum 2 hours per week)
6. Evaluation Components & Policies: Attendance and assignments
7. Course Policies: Honesty Practices and Withdrawal – in accordance with the Institute and DOAA norms
