

FAQs

I do not have a GMAT or GRE score. Am I eligible for applying to PGPEX-VLM?

Yes, you are eligible. GMAT/GRE score is not mandatory. If you have the score, it is treated as a part of your academic record.

I have a GMAT or a GRE score. Do I have to appear for the Aptitude Test?

Yes, you will have to appear for the Aptitude Test, if short-listed in consideration of particulars stated in the application form. Note:-GMAT/GRE score is only used to evaluate part of your academic record mentioned in the Application Form. The decision to allow you to take the Aptitude Test is based on screening result of your Application Form. All candidates short-listed on the basis of Application Form will have to appear in the Aptitude Test .

What will be the venue/date of the Aptitude Test?

The venue of the Aptitude Test will be Indian Institute of Technology Kanpur. The date of the Aptitude Test is 12th December 2010, The test would be conducted from 10-00 am -12-00 noon. Short listed candidates after the Aptitude Test would have to appear for a Personnel Interview on 12th December 2010 itself at IIT Kanpur. Candidates, if required may have to stay on 13th December 2010 also.

What is the structure of the Aptitude Test?

The duration of the Aptitude Test is 2 hours. The test comprises three parts. Part I consists of analytical ability, Part II verbal abilities and Part III engineering aptitude. There will be 25% negative marking in the Aptitude Test.

What will be the pattern of engineering aptitude section in the aptitude test?

There is no prescribed syllabus for the engineering aptitude section of the Aptitude Test. The idea is to test the candidate's ability to apply some fundamental engineering concepts across various disciplines. Specific and advanced level preparation of any particular branch of engineering is not required.

Whether accommodation would be provided for the Aptitude Test & Interview at IIT Kanpur?

Limited chargeable accomodation may be available, subject to first cum first serve basis in hostels.

Do I get a Post-Graduate Diploma at the completion of the Program?

A joint Post Graduate Diploma in Management for Executives for Visionary Leadership in Manufacturing will be awarded jointly by IIMC, IITK, and IITM on successful completion of the program subject to compliance of all requirements of the respective institutes.

What are the estimated expenses for boarding, lodging, and industry tours?

- Cost of accommodation and boarding at IIM/IIT: approximately Rs 7,000 to Rs.8,000 pm (on actuals)
- Cost of domestic visits/ tours: approximately Rs 60,000/- Sixty thousand(on actuals)
- Cost of international visit/ tours: approximately Rs 1.5 to 2.00 lacs (on actuals)

What is the batch size of the Program?

The batch size is between 35 to 40.

Will I be provided family accommodation during my course work?

No family accommodation would be provided. Furnished single occupancy accommodation would be provided.

What are the evaluation criteria during the Program and will I have to pass examination at the end of the Program to get the Diploma?

Each course will have continuous evaluation system based on pedagogy and can include examination, term projects, class interaction etc. Each course will be graded and grade point average will be calculated for each term and full course. You will be required to maintain prescribed academic standard to complete the course. Inability to do so will result in dismissal from the programme/ repeat of the courses as per the prescribed regulation of each Institute.