Keywords: GN= General, OBC= Other Backward Class, OBC-NCL = OBC-Non-Creamy Layer, SC = Scheduled caste, ST= Scheduled tribe, EWS = Economically Weaker Sections, DAP = Differently Abled Persons, SMD = Solid Mechanics and Design, FTS = Fluid and Thermal Sciences, RnA = Robotics and Automation, MFS = Manufacturing Sciences, WL = Waitlisted candidate

ME department is admitting MS(R) students in all specializations. MS(R) candidates are not considered if:

- i) He/she applies for a stream he/she is not eligible for based on the qualifying degree and/or GATE discipline.
- ii) He/she does not meet the marks/CPI criteria. A minimum of 5.5 CPI (equivalently 55%) is required for GN/EWS/OBC(NCL) candidates and passing marks are required for SC/ST/DAP candidates.
- iii) Application is incomplete, important information is missing, or fees is not paid.

Valid qualifying degree and GATE disciplines for admissions to MS(R) in different streams are as follows:

MFS:	Aero Engg, Chem Engg, Metallurgy/MatSc Engg, Prod/Manuf Engg.
FTS:	Aero Engg, Chem Engg
SMD:	Aero Engg, Civil Engg, Metallurgy/MatSc Engg, Chem Engg.
RnA:	Aero Engg, Comp Sc, Elect/Electro/Comm Engg, Mechatronics/Instrum Engg.

All valid GATE scores for different streams are given equal weightage while preparing the merit list.

A. List of candidates selected for provisional admission in institute-sponsored MS(R) program

For institute-sponsored MS(R) admission, the following cut-off scores are used: General: 550, OBC: 550, OBC-NCL: 495, EWS: 495, SC: 367, ST: 367

B. Candidates provisionally selected for admission in project-sponsored MS(R) category

The candidates with a valid GATE score are offered provisional admission in MS(R) program based on the recommendation of the Project Investigator (thesis supervisor) of a research project. No reservation rule is applicable for project-sponsored MS(R) admission. The candidates will work on a project and receive Research Assistantship (RA) from the project based on satisfactory performance. Financial assistance is guaranteed for one year only. Funding may continue in the second year upon satisfactory performance of the selected candidate and/or fund availability in the project.
