

EXHIBITION AND EXHIBITORS

An exhibition of scientific instruments, maps and photographs, and scientific publications on earthquake engineering and related fields was organized at Vigyan Bhawan. Four instrument manufacturers from India, Japan and U.S.A. displayed scientific instruments as follows:

1. Adept Laboratories, Poona, India, exhibited seismological instruments manufactured by them.
2. Kinometrics Inc., San Gabriel, California, U.S.A. exhibited its instruments for Strong Motion, Structural Dynamics and Earthquake Engineering, including accelerographs, vibration monitors and data acquisition systems.
3. Oyo Corporation, Urawa, Japan, exhibited Portable Refraction System, Seismic Prospecting Amplifier, Recording Oscillographs, P and S Wave Logging System, Multi-Channel Signal Enhancement Seismograph, Portable Multi-logging System (Electric Density Elastometer, Supersonic Velocity Measurement) and other equipment.
4. Teledyne Geotech, Garland, Texas, USA, exhibited a Model S-13 Seismometer, a Model TG-120 Timing System and a Model RV-320 Portacorder for their complete line of seismic instrumentation.

The following four sponsoring organisations participated in this exhibition :

1. Central Public Works Department, New Delhi, exhibited Building Construction Activity in various Seismic Zones in India.
2. Geological Survey of India, Calcutta, exhibited data on geology and tectonics of India and the role of Geological Survey in related earthquake engineering studies.
3. India Meteorological Department, New Delhi, exhibited data on earthquake occurrence and related studies in the country.
4. School of Research & Training in Earthquake Engineering, University of Roorkee, Roorkee, exhibited its research and development work in earthquake engineering, its training programmes, strong motion instrumentation programme and other instrumentation.

Publications on Earthquake Engineering and related fields received by the Organising Secretary from various individuals and organisations were put on display; and following bookseller/publishers participated in the exhibition and displayed their publications :
