Fostering deeper research collaboration between Australia and India

APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN

Fellowships commencing in 2023

The Australia India Research Students Fellowship program (AIRS Fellowship) supports emerging researchers from India and Australia to undertake short-term research exchanges.

70 fellowships of up to AUD 10,000 are available, with 35 awards available to applicants from higher education institutions in each country. The program is open to eligible research students and post-doctoral scholars (early-career researchers) across all disciplines. AIRS Fellows will undertake a research project during an exchange of 4 to 8 weeks, to be completed by mid-October 2023.

The program is led by the Australia India Institute and funded by the Australian Government Department of Education.

"The Australia India Research Students Fellowship program is set to boost research collaboration between Australia and India after COVID-19 put many foreign exchange programs on hold. I look forward to meeting the next generation of Australian and Indian research leaders.

– The Hon Lisa Singh, CEO of the Australia India Institute

"India is one of Australia’s closest international partners, and our two countries have a strong history of bilateral cooperation in education and research...These programs are run by the Australia India Institute and funded by the Australian Government to drive collaboration and innovation between our two countries.

– The Hon Jason Clare, Australian Minister for Education, following the launch of the AIRS Fellowship Program and ARCH-India on 22 August 2022
