

Nature of offences in cases with ICC:

- A staff member was accused of making sexually coloured remarks to members of the staff.
- A male student who was subjected to sexual assault by a non-resident of IIT Kanpur, complained against his fellow student for being complicit in this incident and supporting it.
- A student complained of indecent remarks made by a team mate.
- A student complained of inappropriate touch by a fellow student.
- A female student complained of academic misconduct and being verbally abused in public and stalked by a fellow student.
- A student manhandled a girl student.
- A visitor to institute complained that one of the shopkeepers from a shop on IIT Kanpur campus had asked her inappropriate questions and touched her body without her consent.
- A girl student was groped by a student during Antaragni.
- A former woman security guard complained of sexually suggestive remarks by a superior.
- A boy student complained of stalking by a girl student.
- An audio clip with sexual innuendo was played during the tutorial for a course when a female tutor was teaching.
- Several girl students complained of receiving an email from an unknown sender with a video attached which was inappropriate and vulgar.
- A student was found peeping into the bathroom of the Health Centre while a girl was inside.
- A woman faculty complained of sexually suggestive remarks by a senior colleague.
- A female student of another institution complained that she received mail with abusive sexual content from a student of IIT Kanpur.
- A female student complained of being stalked. She had been approached multiple times by a male student both physically and through email despite her making it clear that she did not want to talk or communicate with him any anyway.
- A student gained access to the email and Facebook accounts of a girl student without her consent.
- A girl student groped by a doctor in a city hospital under the pretext of medical examination.
- A campus resident complained that she had been photographed without her consent.
- A student complained of sexual abuse by a senior student.
- A girl student complained of stalking.
- A female student complained that a fellow male student was in possession of private pictures of her which he was using to spoil her reputation.
- A student groped a girl student under the influence of alcohol.